

We have some very exciting news!
The studio is moving to a new home.

The move will present new opportunities that will provide a better experience for our clients. Additional rooms and space will enable the studio to expand its schedule to feature more classes and workshops, provide a meeting room, and rental space for events, classes and "spa" services.

Our last day of classes at 2635 Town Center Blvd. N.
will be on May 20th.

We will start classes at the new location on Monday, May 22nd.

The new location is only 1 mile away at 16305 Kensington Dr, Suite 270.

As of right now, that is all that is changing.
The schedule will remain the same.

We will host a Grand Reopening in August to celebrate the new space and our 2 year anniversary.
We look forward to having you join us.
Please visit our Facebook page for updates and details.

See you at the new studio!